The story of man
is a chronicle inscribed over the doorways and gateways and passageways of time
The piebald scan
of human hopes and fears of loves and hates
of stubborn pride
and gentle meekness
of noble strength
and dishonorable weakness is everywhere described on doors and gates
in the climes
and lengths
and hemispheres
of the world
and many tales of humanity are lost in the unexposed depths beneath the ruins of impearled colassuses, built astride the tide of human vanity
These are doors that have closed . . .

Some of our doors also are behind us:
the one that led from the blindness
of the antechamber of life, the many doors that grew in size
as we began to shed our youth, the doors that needed a parental push, the daors af childish strife the doors that led to lave's surprise, the doors af enlightenment,
the doors of truth.
These are the exits of aur past . . .

We stand naw before the entrances of today
and tomorraw
and hesitate anly to borraw
the strength ta play against the remaining daars, and the last.
This is the strength we stare
as we pass through the Carpenter's door . . .

A banquet was held for the delegates on Saturday evening. The guest speaker was the Honorable Charles A. Halleck, minority leader in the House of Representatives.

The convention closed on Sunday afternoon with some delegates leaving earlier than others.

HOMECOMING — 1962

S.J.C., 6 BUTLER, O.

The caption on the left reads "S.J.C., 6 — BUTLER 0," but that caption did not make a season. It helped to be sure but the 1962 Puma team did more than beat Butler on a rainy Homecoming day.

Tough Hillsdale and Central State teams combined to give the Pumas many aches and pains before SJC could meet Valparaiso. However, a fresh and spirited group routed Valpo late in September and went on to scare the life out of I.C.C. hopefuls until the physical strain mutilated a thin squad. Lack of depth spelled defeat but an abundance of spirit achieved four big victories and a successful season for St. Joseph's.

Seniar Half-back, Danald Bian, (#26), breaks away in the SJC victary aver Evansville.

PUMAS

The 1962-63 SJC basketball team was "good." But how can you measure "goodness"? Does it take a good record?

At times St. Joe fans seem to think so, but down deep the Puma fan likes his team, likes his players, likes the coaches, and hates the opposing team. If an occasional or even frequent 'hiss' is aimed at a SJC player it is not because the guy in the stands thinks he can do a better job, but because he hates to lose.

But if a fan hates to lose, think of the player. The 11—12 record was a disappointment to the players because guys like Art Voellinger, George Post, Bill Braunbeck, and Ken Dockus, and all the others had tried so hard to win.

Records, alone, do not always measure success.

THE TEAM WAS "GOOD."

Requiescat in Pace!

The closing of the school year is marked by the death of Pope John XXIII on June 3, 1963.

The Holy Father, friend of all nations endeared himself not only to all Christendom but to the entire world in the five years of his reign. At the age of 76 he left behind him two major encyclicals, "Mater Et Magistra" and "Pacem in Terris," as examples of his all-encompassing love for humanity and his deep desire to insure the basic dignity and the freedom of the individual.

Pope John also willed to the world an enormous undertaking, the second Vatican Ecumenical Council, which stands as a milestone on the road to a religious unity which is not bounded by belief or geography.

Albert Cardinal Meyer, Archbishop of the Diocese of Chicago, has said that Pope John, when speaking of Pope Pius X, unwittingly wrote his own eulogy; "In him people behold that rare combination of all the desirable traits possessed by each social class. He is genuine like a true peasant; he is honest and strong, like one of our own factory workers; he has the true patience of the seaman; he is calm as a shepherd; he is well-bred and austere as the descendants of the noblest families in the land; he is benign and courteous as a teacher or judge; he is good and generous as we imagined the saints to be."
